FALL SENTENCED--1 YEAR PRISON AND FINED

CONVICTED ON A CHARGE OF TAKING BRIBE

JUSTICE WM. HITZ OF WASHINGTON SETS FINE AT $100,000

FIRST TIME IN AMERICAN HISTORY FORMER CABINET OFFICER SO SENTENCED

Washington, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—Former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall was sentenced to serve one year and fined $100,000 by Justice William Hitz today following his conviction on a charge of having accepted a bribe from E. L. Doheny, multi-millionaire California oil man, in connection with the Elk Hills naval oil reserve leases.

Fall, who has been ill with lung trouble and whose condition threatened to cause a mistrial, was not granted suspension of the sentence. Justice Hitz announced that he would suspend the prison sentence if the execution of the penalty was to have gone into effect today, because of Fall's physical condition.

As the case is to be appealed, he said, this could not be done. It was the first time in American history that a former cabinet officer has been sentenced to jail for a felony committed while in office.

Sentence was imposed after Justice Hitz had overruled motions for a new trial and for arrest of the judgment against Fall.

Disqualification of Fall from holding public office although not mentioned by the judge in sentencing follows automatically under the law.

There was no demonstration in the court room when sentence was passed. Mrs. Fall, sitting close to her husband, patted him on the back and whispered a few words to him.

Fall's two daughters, Mrs. C. C. Chase and Mrs. Jovett Elliott, bowed their heads as if shocked by the sentence.

Fall sat without visible emotion in his chair as the judge pronounced sentence. Mrs. Fall, just behind him in the prisoner's dock, wept silently. The $100,000 fine was exactly the amount which Fall received in a little satchel from Doheny eight years ago this month which was held by the jury last week to have been a bribe.

Doheny, against whom a bribery indictment growing out of the same transactions is pending, sat beside Fall throughout the trial but left for California immediately after the verdict. His trial is expected to be held in January.

Fall, much refreshed from the week of rest since the verdict was rendered, walked into the court room on the arm of his physician, having discharged the wheel chair which he came to court in during the trial.

After the sentence was imposed, however, a wheel chair was used to take him to an automobile awaiting at the court house door a few feet away.

Fall's bond of $5,000 on which he has been free since his indictment in June, 1924, was renewed by Justice Hitz pending disposition of the appeal.

Two members of the jury which convicted the aged former secretary a week ago sat in the rear of the court room when the sentence was imposed. They were Foreman Thomas E. Norris, the young bank clerk, who announced the jury's verdict of guilty, and Miss Virginia Cooper, 23, a bookkeeper.

Attorney Frank J. Hogan made no plea for clemency, merely replying in the negative when Justice Hitz asked if there was any reason why sentence should not now be imposed.

Fall may avoid payment of the $100,000 fine by taking "a poor convict's" oath and serving 30 days additional in jail.

Justice Hitz said he would under normal conditions have imposed the maximum penalty, three years in prison and a fine of $300,000.

But because of what the court saw of Fall during the trial and because of the unanimous report of physicians that Fall was seriously ill with a bronchial ailment, Justice Hitz decided that the maximum penalty should not be imposed.

Justice Hitz added that since an appeal was to be taken, automatically suspending operation of the sentence, he would let the penalty stand, inoperative in the record the statement that as long as the defendant's condition was as it was, he favored suspension.

Fall returned to his hotel with his family at the end of the 20-minute session of court which was so momentous for him. He refused to comment on the sentence but said that a statement would be issued in his behalf later in the day.

Mark B. Thompson, Phoenix, Ariz., Fall's personal lawyer, who collapsed with a heart attack when the jury verdict was reported, sat by Fall's side today but did not address the court.

RECEIVERSHIP IS ASKED FOR BY FOSHAY COMPANY

IS $10,000,000 MIDWEST BANKING, PUBLIC UTILITIES AND REAL ESTATE FIRM

HAD FOSHAY TOWER AND ITS HEADQUARTERS IN THE CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS

St. Paul, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—Receivership was asked here today for the W. B. Foshay Company, $10,000,000 mid-west banking, public utilities and real estate firm, with headquarters in Minneapolis.

The request for receivership was filed by three officials of the company shortly after the Foshay State Bank here was closed by order of the state banking commissioner. No reason for the crash of the company was given and officials refused to discuss its position in the recent stock market crash.

The Foshay Company controlled vast blocks of stock in power plants, bus lines and steamship companies and was heavily interested in Minnesota real estate.

During period of expansion extending over the past six months the company took over three Twin City banks, and completed construction of a 30-story tower office building in Minneapolis.

It was announced that the North-west Bancorporation will take over the Foshay Trust & Savings Company of Minneapolis and the third Foshay State Bank, also of Minneapolis, will become affiliated with the First Bank Stock Corporation. Neither of the holding companies were believed negotiating for the closed St. Paul bank, however.

The Foshay company was organized in 1919 with the Tri-State Utilities Company as the parent organization. Further utilities were added to the nucleus and until the crash the organization was reported in a flourishing condition.

The Foshay expansion program reached its peak in September when the company celebrated its 12th anniversary. At that time the Foshay Tower was dedicated, with Secretary of War Wood as the principal speaker.

Thousands of investors in the north-west and mid-west were believed to have been wiped out in the crash. Minneapolis and St. Paul bankers hailed the passing of the gigantic Foshay combine as perhaps the greatest economic disaster in the history of this section.

The Foshay Company operated extensively throughout the mid-west in public utilities and real estate. Under its control were three banks in Minneapolis and St. Paul, and a huge Minneapolis tower office building.

W. B. Foshay and his associates also controlled large blocks of stock in power companies, bus lines and steamship companies.

The company under the leadership of Foshay made its first broad expansion in 1919 when it joined forces with the utility holdings of H. H. Herley in the Minnesota Electric Distributing Company. With that affiliation the parent organization reached out into scores of Minnesota and North Dakota communities.

Through its twelve years of existence the W. B. Foshay Company extended its operations into many fields of banking, industry and real estate. Its stability never was questioned and until recent establishment of chain banking systems it was regarded as a leader in power in the mid-west.

The receivership was voluntarily requested by Henley for the Foshay Company, Joseph Chapman for the Foshay Building Corporation and O. M. Spratt for the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation.

New York, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—David Nagle awakened when the telephone rang incessantly.

His apartment was filled with gas. His wife and child were almost unconscious. He staggered to a window, opened it and then answered the telephone.

It was a "wrong number—excuse it please."

Pres. Hoover Names G. A. Youngquist Assistant Attorney General in Charge of Prohibition

HE SUCCEEDS MRS. MABEL WALKER WILLEBRANDT

SELECTION OF YOUNGQUIST DISPOSES OF ONE OF PROBLEMS CONFRONTING HOOVER

THE IMPORTANT PROSECUTOR'S BERTH HAS BEEN VACANT FOR OVER 5 MONTHS

Washington, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—President Hoover today appointed G. Aaron Youngquist, attorney general of Minnesota, to be assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition. He succeeds Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt.

Youngquist is 44 years old, and a close personal friend of Attorney General Mitchell. He was born in Sweden.

An official report submitted to the White House by the justice department described Youngquist as "dry politically and personally."

The selection of Youngquist disposed of one of the most vexatious problems that has confronted President Hoover since he entered the White House. The important prohibition prosecutor's berth has been vacant for more than five months.

Youngquist came to the United States with his parents in 1887 when he was two years old. After a brief residence in Illinois, the family moved to St. Paul, Minn., in 1889. Youngquist was educated in the public schools of St. Paul, worked on a farm for several years and then entered business college. Qualified as a stenographer he worked his way through St. Paul law school where he graduated with honors in 1909.

His first public office was that of county attorney for Polk county, Minn., in 1914 to 1918. He later was appointed to the state board of law examiners and also served as a member of the board of governors of the Minnesota State Bar Association.

He served as a captain in the air corps during the world war. In 1921 he was appointed assistant attorney general of Minnesota.

In February, 1928, Youngquist was appointed attorney general of Minnesota to fill a vacancy and was elected in his own right to that office in November, 1928.

He is vice president of the Association of Attorneys General. He has specialized in his law practice in tax litigation, representing Minnesota before the supreme court of the United States in the important ore tax cases decided several years ago. His branch of the justice department has a general supervision over prohibition and taxation.

The new assistant attorney general is a member of the Unitarian church and of the Masonic fraternity. He is married and has four children.

St. Paul, Nov. 1.—G. Aaron Youngquist, attorney general of Minnesota, politically and personally an avowed prohibitionist, today accepted the post vacated by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, that of assistant attorney general in charge of prohibition.

In a carefully guarded statement, Youngquist said the appointment offered him by President Hoover and Attorney General Mitchell appealed to him strongly because "supervising the enforcement of the national prohibition act, especially in view of the proposed changes in administration, seems an undertaking of tremendous importance."

"The office affords an interesting problem in government administration and law enforcement and in the advancement of law observance."

Youngquist declined to comment further on his appointment or on his personal views of prohibition enforcement, since, he said, such comments were looked upon with disfavor by the government.

MOUNT PELEE BREAKS OUT IN NEW ERUPTION

Fort de France, Martinique, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—The threatening volcano of Mount Pelee, which destroyed the city of Saint-Pierre and about 30,000 inhabitants in 1902, broke out with a new eruption today for the sixth time in two weeks.

For nearly seven minutes fire, ashes, smoke and steam were belched from the cone of the volcano. The renewed eruption was accompanied by heavy subterranean rumblings which increased the fear among residents who were evacuating towns about the base.

No serious damage was reported but the eruption gave rise to the possibility considered by authorities that the entire island might be evacuated. Residents already have fled from the towns of Precheur and Moutre Rouge and the refugees now total more than 8,000.

BRITISH PREMIER RETURNS HOME

MAC DONALD BACK IN ENGLAND AFTER VISIT IN U. S. AND CANADA

Liverpool, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald returned today from his historic visit to the United States and Canada, prepared to convince his countrymen that his journey had done more to advance the cause of international peace.

The S. S. Duchess of York, on which MacDonald and his daughter Isabel sailed from Quebec on Oct. 25, docked at 7:15 A. M.

MacDonald was greeted by the Lord Mayor of Liverpool and the Earl of Derby, who spent several minutes in close conversation with him.

Large crowds of workers en route to the factories lined the dock, and greeted the premier with lusty yells of welcome.

Before boarding the train for London, MacDonald issued the following statement:

"I sincerely believe my meeting with President Hoover and other statesmen of the United States has brought our two peoples closer together and has improved mutual understanding."

"It has also paved the way for more effectual co-operation of other powers and the maintenance of world peace. I am strong in this conviction. I feel thus far the purpose of my mission has been fulfilled and that the way is now clear for further steps."

London, Nov. 1.—Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, ending his historic naval mission to the United States, arrived here today after an enthusiastic greeting at Liverpool.

Convinced that the success of his American visit would permit progress toward world disarmament, the prime minister was scheduled to plunge immediately into the important domestic problems which his labor government must face in the session of parliament which opened this week.

"Smaller profit automatically creates greater values which in turn cannot fail to bring greater demand from the public. We are setting our house in order, and shall adjust ourselves to new conditions. We do this with full confidence that Ford's policies of economizing in every particular, so as to create even greater values than history has known, cannot fail to bring success to all concerned."

FORD MOTOR CO. MAKES PRICE CUT IN AUTOS, TRUCKS

REDUCTION MADE, SAYS COMPANY, TO SECURE CONTINUATION OF GOOD BUSINESS

TYRHOLO COMPANY, LOCAL DISTRIBUTORS, SAY REDUCTION WAS MOST UNEXPECTED

Detroit, Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—A substantial reduction in the prices of its automobiles and trucks reportedly from $15 to $200, was announced today by the Ford Motor Co.

"We are reducing prices now because we feel that such a step is the best contribution that can be made to secure a continuation of good business throughout the country," Edsel B. Ford said in a statement accompanying the announcement.

"It is our belief that basically the industry and business of the country are sound. Every indication is that general conditions will remain prosperous."

The price reductions as announced today range from $15 on the roadster to $200 on the town car. Reductions and new prices on the most popular models are: standard coupe, $50 to $550; Tudor sedan, $25 to $500; Fordor sedan, $25 to $600; town car, $200 to $1,200. The taxicab model was cut $75 to $725.

Financing costs to credit purchasers also will be cut, according to E. C. Kanzler, president of the Universal Credit Co., which offers the authorized Ford financing plan to Ford purchasers.

The financing reductions will vary because of sectional freight cost differences and various sums for which notes are made, but it was estimated they would range from 5 to 12 per cent.

W. P. Tyrholm Interviewed

"The reduction in prices of Ford cars effective today, ranging from $15 to $200, was entirely unlooked for and unexpected," said W. P. Tyrholm of the Walter P. Tyrholm Company, local Ford distributor, when interviewed today.

"The sale of Ford cars considering the year 1929 has reached record proportions despite the fact that Ford dealers are recognized as being ultra-conservative in their appraisals of trade-ins. During the Model T days the Ford dealers' discount was the lowest of any car. When the Model A was announced the previous narrow margin was reduced to a point where it became a question of large volume and still more conservative appraisal on trade-ins, if a Ford dealer was to succeed."

"Now still a further cut in discount to dealers approximating 15 per cent effective today with the new prices, brings to the Ford dealer the realization that if he is to be successful in the future it will be the result of huge volume built around an exceptionally efficient sales and service organization."

Then, on her return to America, she became a model in a fashionable dress shop, working under the name of Gay Powell. A few months ago she met Kraft, and their longing for adventure took them aboard the Creole to his death and to her prison cell.

Dorothy Frooks, lawyer of Peelskill and New York, will leave here within a few days for Pointe LeFache, La., to defend Miss Ord.

Miss Frooks said she was "worried about the child," and she feared a reported statement of the girl that "my mother would never see me alive in this jail," was a suicide threat.

4 OF CREW ARE HELD AS MATERIAL WITNESSES IN CASE

STEAMER CREOLE DOCKS AT NEW ORLEANS, AND ARRESTS FOLLOW

DEATH OF JACK KRAFT, YOUNG WRITER, IS BEING INVESTIGATED

New Orleans, La., Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—Four members of the crew of the steamer Creole were arrested when the liner docked here from New York today and ordered held as material witnesses in connection with the death of Jack Kraft, young writer.

Benedict Deely, lookout man; Manuel Castros, night watchman; Joseph Rodriguez, steerage steward, and Jack Curley, quartermaster, were the men arrested.

Leander Perez, Puaquemes Parish district attorney, said the arrests were made on information given him by Gloria Ouzer, who as Ione Orde, accompanied Kraft on the voyage that culminated in his death when the ship neared New Orleans, several weeks ago. The body of Kraft was found in the Mississippi river, a bullet wound near the heart.

Perez would not indicate what information he hoped to obtain from the crew members. John McGouldrick, second officer of the Creole is already under arrest here on a murder indictment.

New York, Nov. 1.—A family of distinction in American naval and educational circles moved today, according to the Daily News, to aid Ione Ord, or Ouzer, who is being held in jail in Louisiana in connection with the mysterious slaying of Jack Kraft, young New York writer.

Miss Ord's identity was revealed as Gloria Rouzer, niece of Rear Admiral Julian L. Latimer and cousin of Dr. Thomas Latimer, educator at Johns Hopkins University, the News said. Her father was Captain Leigh H. Rozear, millionaire mine owner in Mexico, who lost his fortune during the Mexican revolution.

Mrs. Gloria M. Rouzer, or Rozear, the divorced mother of the young girl, has thrown all her efforts to save her daughter from prison. Although she herself is forced to design costumes now, she has retained a lawyer and given instructions to spare nothing for her daughter.

The southern trip aboard the steamer Creole was only one of the many adventures of Ione Ord, it was revealed when her identity became known. When she lived on the Riviera three years ago, she eloped with Michael Powell, an English moving picture actor, the paper said.

Then, on her return to America, she became a model in a fashionable dress shop, working under the name of Gay Powell. A few months ago she met Kraft, and their longing for adventure took them aboard the Creole to his death and to her prison cell.

Dorothy Frooks, lawyer of Peelskill and New York, will leave here within a few days for Pointe LeFache, La., to defend Miss Ord.

Miss Frooks said she was "worried about the child," and she feared a reported statement of the girl that "my mother would never see me alive in this jail," was a suicide threat.

LAKE MICHIGAN'S THIRD WRECK IN PAST FEW DAYS

APPROXIMATELY 10 OF CREW DROWN IN SENATOR COLLISION ON STORMY LAKE

FARTHER DOWN LAKE THE CAR FERRY AND WISCONSIN FOUNDERED

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—(U.P.)—Tight-lipped sailors put out grimly today over the fog-shrouded waves of Lake Michigan because they sailed in the wake of disaster for the third time in little more than a week.

Death struck out of the dismal gray fog 20 off Port Washington yesterday, driving the prow of the ore-laden freighter Marquette into the side of the S. S. Senator and sending her to the bottom with approximately 10 of her crew. Eighteen others struggled in the icy water until they were picked up by the Marquette or other craft.

Farther down the Wisconsin coast, off Kenosha, lies the stormy lake's "graveyard," where the car ferry Milwaukee went down with some 50 men in a tempest 10 days ago and where last Tuesday morning the liner Wisconsin foundered, carrying 13 or more to death.

Shouting orders from the bridge until a lunge of the sinking S. S. Senator threw him overboard, Capt. Geo. H. Kinch followed the gallant precedent of the captains of the Milwaukee and the Wisconsin and "stayed with the ship." He was listed as missing today and presumably was drowned.

The unprecedented fury of the lake, whipped by successive gales and treacherous under blinding fogs, has brought grief to the families of more than 100 homes in the last 60 days. Funerals of those who perished have followed in close succession in cities and towns along the shores as one by one the bodies have been recovered.

Dawn today found anxious wives and mothers besieging ship offices and coast guard stations for names of the dead in the latest disaster. Hope still was held some of those unaccounted for may have been picked up from floating wreckage.

The known dead were: Peter Smith, Hamilton, Ont. Mrs. Minnie Gormley, assistant steward, Milwaukee.

These were unaccounted for, although it was believed some of them were rescued. Capt. George H. Kinch of the Senator, Ogdenburg, N. Y.

John Nielson, first mate, Detroit. Herbert Giloux, Midland, Ont. Tony Morena, porter, Detroit. Irwin A. Ammon, second assistant engineer.

William O'Hare. K. Griffin. George Miller. James Irvin. Henry Spears. D. Dean.

The Marquette was bound from Escanaba, Mich., to Inland Harbor with a heavy cargo of ore. The Senator had left Milwaukee with a cargo of automobiles, bound for Detroit. At 11:40 A. M. the lookouts on both boats saw the ships loom out of the fog, too late to avert a collision.

The story of what happened in the next few minutes—minutes of terror and heroism, of confusion and calm, of death and narrow escape—came from survivors today.

Norman C. De Rosier, coal passer on the Marquette, saw the lunge of the Senator that hurled Capt. Kinch to almost certain death.

"I saw the captain waving his hands and heard him shouting orders as he stepped from the wheelhouse," De Rosier said. "Just as he stepped onto the deck the ship slanted and he plunged into the water. He disappeared and in three or four more minutes the ship went down."

Ralph Ellis, of South Bend, the 24-year-old radio operator of the Senator, was knocked down from his stool by the collision.

"I looked out and saw that terrible scene and then jumped back to the desk," he said. "I sent SOS once and then the batteries went dead with a sizzle. I was thrown into the water. Somehow I was picked up by a fishing boat."

Capt. Walter F. Amesbury of the Marquette said he tried to keep the prow of his ship wedged in the great hole in the side of the other ship to prevent water rushing in.

"It was impossible," he declared. "The Senator listed to port and sank." The Marquette limped into Milwaukee Harbor last night with a gaping hole in her bow and tons of water in her hold. She carried three of the survivors from the Senator. All her own crew of 35 were safe.

Most of those rescued from the Senator were taken aboard the fishing tug Delos S. Smith. The tug steamed about the wreck, picking up the half drowned men, many of whom had leaped into the waves without life belts. There had been no time to launch life boats.

On a mass of wreckage with several others were Matthew Gormley, steward, and his wife, Mrs. Minnie Gormley. (Continued on page 8)

Hoover Appointment Commended

MINNESOTANS are generally agreed that the appointment of G. A. Youngquist, attorney general of Minnesota, to be assistant attorney general of the United States in charge of prohibition, is a most commendable one. He succeeds Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt.

Mr. Youngquist has made a record as attorney general of Minnesota and his decisions, when questioned, have invariably been sustained by the state supreme court.

He is a hard worker, and the energy of the chief has been reflected in his staff. Given a larger sphere, the Dispatch believes Mr. Youngquist will "make good" to the satisfaction of President Hoover.

The Ability to Forget

In his "Memory," recently published by E. P. Dutton & Co., William Lyon Phelps writes on the ability to forget as follows:

"Tomorrow is invariably based on yesterday; no event, no matter how trivial, can be isolated. It belongs in the procession of things, and has its influence.

"And as not only the deeds, but the thoughts of yesterday become the memories of tomorrow, it is more important to have a well-furnished mind than a bumper crop on the farm or lovely flowers in the garden. For whilst we are often annoyed in not being able to remember certain things, we are more deeply troubled by not being able to forget."

One should not sigh for one's lost youth, says the author, and counsels the reader to forget it.

"Indeed a truly healthy and well-balanced mind will not torment itself with the thought of vanished pleasures; as so many old idiots sigh when they remember their lost youth. The fact that we once had youth and health and happy experiences should give pleasure and not pain to recollection; nobody and nothing can take away those solid enjoyments. It is a selfish or ungrateful or unappreciative mind that makes use of vanished delight only to minister to misery; it is not a clear-sighted way to look at life.

"Memory is like a garden. Flowers and fruits and vegetables come with care; weeds come with carelessness. If one plants in the garden the right seeds and devotes constant vigilance and affectionate effort to their cultivation, the results will be either beautiful or useful or both."

The Camera Has a Quick Eye

THE camera has a quick eye and is being used to settle disputes in regard to various contests held. The scene is photographed and the moving pictures studied at leisure.

Reversing their first decision after seeing a moving picture, judges in the drum major contest in Louisville at the national American Legion convention awarded first instead of second place to Gerald B. Cannon, drum major of post No. 8 drum corps of St. Paul.

As recorded in news reports, at the conclusion of the parade, in which there were 130 drum corps besides more than 60 bands, the judges decided the drum major leading a Legion drum corps from Buffalo, N. Y., had won the prize with 97 points, against Cannon's 96.

But that was before the judges had seen the moving pictures of the parade. It was found that Cannon had twirled his baton almost twice as fast as did any of the other drum majors. The percentage was changed and it was found that the St. Paul twirler had an almost perfect score of 99.

Teach Youth to Use Leisure Time

TEACHING a child to make use of his leisure time was declared to be an increasing essential responsibility of the public schools by Carrol R. Reed, superintendent of the Minneapolis schools, who addressed a conference of educators at Minneapolis recently.

In the old days the whole basis of our education was to teach and train one to earn a living. "But today," said the speaker, "there is more leisure than ever before, and education must meet the new condition by teaching children how they can best make use of their leisure time."

And glee clubs, musical organizations, dramatic clubs and other outer-curriculum activities, he said, are important for they teach the student how to enjoy himself in his leisure hour.

If the leisure hour carries with it a tinge of self-improvement it means much to the individual. A change of study, of occupation, often acts as a tonic and is better than the leisure of some which may be devoted to a foolish dissipation of energy and thought.

Supervised play in many schools is a step in the right direction. Athletics supervised by competent coaches turn energy in the right direction and build up mind and body.

The Lady of the House

THE new style of home building and the modernizing of old homes seems largely due to the influence of the Lady of the House. Structures, interior and exterior arrangements and the multiplicity of conveniences assured by all-wise architects and builders, all point to the influence of women in new designing of homes. No bachelor ever was so fussy or critical about arrangements. With the average man almost anything will do so long as it is comfortable.

But the Man of the House is not tied to the average home as much as the Lady of the House and it is to make her satisfied, to save her steps, to add to her comfort and happiness that the new method of building has been created.

As there never can be a real home without a woman in it, architects and builders are seeing that she is pleased in almost every arrangement that enters into home building.

THE Cow and Hen special of the Northern Pacific railway company has been declared a "rolling agricultural college." In its two weeks tour of Minnesota and Wisconsin it taught advanced practices in dairying and poultry raising.

THE annual tri-county crop show will be held at Faribault on December 3, 4 and 5.

Setting the pace for all other low-priced sixes

The Coupe • Body by Fisher

IN EVERY phase of performance, today's Pontiac Big Six is setting the pace for all other low-priced sixes. The reasons are obvious. Its 200-cubic-inch L-head engine is the largest to be found in any six so low in price. Its carburetor is of the most advanced type, incorporating an accelerating pump for extra snap. A gasoline pump supplies the correct amount of fuel for any speed. Thermostatic control of water temperature keeps the engine operating at high efficiency at all times. Little wonder, then, that Pontiac is out-performing its field—

In Speed. The highest speed offered by any low-priced six—proved by the "fifth wheel," most accurate speed measuring device known to automotive engineers.

In Power. 60 horsepower at 3,000 r. p. m.—the highest power to be found in any low-priced six—produced at moderate engine speed.

In Acceleration. The fastest acceleration provided by any low-priced six—this also proved by the scientifically accurate "fifth wheel."

In Safety. Because of its non-squeak, internal-expanding four-wheel brakes—its hardwood-and-steel body construction—its full tread axles, front and rear.

Furthermore, the Pontiac Big Six combines these superiorities with the equally important performance factors—smoothness, riding and handling ease and long life. In addition, it is remarkably economical to own and operate. Come in and let us give you figures which substantiate this statement. And bring your present car for our generous appraisal.

Pontiac Big Six, $745 to $895, f. o. b. Pontiac, Mich., plus delivery charges. Exemptions, spring covers and Lovejoy shock absorbers regular equipment at slight extra cost. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobiles values... Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

ALTHOUGH VISITORS CLASSED AS MEDIOCRE, TEAMS WILL BE EVENED BY HANDICAP

INELIGIBLES INCLUDE LAMMON, GARVEY, HEALD, SCHUETZ, ABRAHAMSON, HALVORSON

Six regulars on the Brainerd high school football squad will be ineligible for tomorrow afternoon's game with Park Rapids because of study requirements. Those on the first squad ineligible are: Lammon, left end; Garvey, left tackle; Heald, left guard; Schuetz, half; Halvorson, quarter, and Abrahamson, full back.

BEN RADICK OF MARQUETTE WINS RENOWN

IS HEAVIEST MAN ON SQUAD. PLAYS RIGHT TACKLE AND GOOD PUNTER

COMBINATION OF SPEED AND WEIGHT MAKES HIM FEARED LINEMAN

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—(UP)—The heaviest man on the Marquette university squad is Ben Radick, who plays right tackle and more often than not he is the first man down the field under punts.

That combination of speed and weight has made Radick one of the most feared linemen in the middle-west. In every newspaper story of Marquette games this fall, Radick has been mentioned as the star.

A sure tackler, a wizard at opening a hole through the opposition line and a fast thinker, Radick is co-captain of the team this year, his third with Marquette.

Weighing 216 pounds, he has ripped through opposition lines in such colorful style that in Milwaukee they call him "the man who taught spectators how to watch line play."

It is generally known that 90 per cent of football fans usually are watching the back who is carrying the ball, but at Marquette games this year, nearly every play has brought shouts of "look at Radick go."

His home is in Green Bay, Wis.

THREE BIG TEN AFFAIRS IN THE MIDDLE WEST

WISCONSIN AND PURDUE, MINNESOTA AND INDIANA ARE MATCHED SATURDAY

GOPHERS HAVE APPEARED AS A FOOTBALL AVALANCHE IN THE FRAY

By BERT DEMBY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Two intersectional games and three battles among themselves feature the action of leading middlewestern football teams tomorrow.

Headlining the play in this section will be three Big Ten affairs, and the intersectional color of the day comes from the fact that Notre Dame is down in Atlanta to play Georgia Tech and Chicago has gone east to meet Princeton.

In popular interest the leading western game will be the contest between Northwestern and Illinois at Evanston, one of those traditional rivalry affairs which will bring out approximately 50,000 persons.

Undeclared, but bearing a record stained by a tie with Iowa, Illinois still has western conference championship hopes and Northwestern is determined to make up for the defeat which it received from Minnesota. The two teams appear evenly matched, with Illinois having the edge if there is an edge.

The other Big Ten affairs bring together Wisconsin and Purdue and Minnesota and Indiana. In forecasting these two games, one must favor the undefeated teams—Minnesota and Purdue.

Indiana by tying Ohio State last week showed that it was strengthened considerably since early season, but Minnesota has appeared as a football avalanche thus far and Indiana appears to be in for another defeat.

Purdue, owning probably the best team it ever has had, stands to win from Wisconsin although it probably will face a harder fight than Indiana will give Minnesota. Wisconsin has excellent backfield strength but so far the Badger line has been weak.

On the other hand, Purdue has a great backfield—probably the best in the middle west—which it takes an excellent line to stop. Purdue's line probably will be lighter than Wisconsin's but for that matter it was far lighter than Michigan's and literally played the Wolverine forwards off their feet.

The game at Atlanta is another chance for Notre Dame to advance toward that national title which it is visioning. The Irish haven't lost a game all year, but although the Tech team has suffered defeat, there was no over-confidence in the squad which left South Bend to invade the south.

Playing far better so far than it was expected to, Chicago has hope of winning from Princeton. The Maroons remember that day in 1921 when they shocked the football world by downing Princeton for the first middle western victory ever scored in the east.

The other three Big Ten teams—Ohio State, Michigan and Iowa either play out of the conference or are idle. Ohio State goes to Pittsburgh and Michigan and Iowa will continue to practice for next Saturday's contests.

Evading British Law

There is only one place in which you can safely play poker in the British isles—that is a carriage of a moving train. But you must stop playing the moment the train stops. The law against gaming was passed before the days of trains, and speaks of "gaming in a particular place," but a train in motion cannot be classed under this heading.

The two great curses of China, flood and famine, are closely related, and foresters believe they may be partly if not wholly prevented by scientific forestry.

Snow and Drizzle Have Caused Havoc on Roads

Four days of snow and drizzle have played havoc with unpaved highways in Minnesota, and in the weekly condition report issued by the State Highway department today many of the gravel routes are listed as fair or poor. With continued wet weather, the report cautions, all the unpaved will be rough and sloppy, and motorists are urged to allow some extra time in planning trips.

A ten mile extension of the pavement on T. H. No. 1 south of Geneva has been opened to traffic, but a five mile detour from the end of the pavement to Albert Lea is still in use.

With the present soft condition of the gravel roads, it will take several days of sunshine before they can be restored to first class condition.

SEVERE COMMUNICATION BE-TWEEN CITY OF WINNIPEG
AND OUTSIDE WORLD

St. Paul, Nov. 1.—(UP)—A heavy sleet and snow storm today severed all communications lines between the city of Winnipeg and the outside world.

Telephone, telegraph and press wires were "dead" since 4 P. M. Thursday when the storm swept over the Winnipeg region.

Communication officials feared the situation could not be remedied before tonight.

St. Paul, Nov. 1.—(UP)—When the regular United Press leased wires to Winnipeg were disrupted today by heavy sleet and snow storms in Minnesota and Canada—the newest method of communication, the radio—was brought into play to provide the Free-Press Evening Bulletin with part of its news.

Bulletins of world-wide importance were broadcast by KSTP to the Canadian paper.

KSTP used a short wave length in the transmission over W9PP.

awake and well—doctor
prescribed it

CONSTIPATION ruins hopes, saps strength. Yet thousands of sufferers have found the way to relieve and prevent this disease. Read how this man rid his system of constipation.

"During the three years before ALL-BRAN cured me, I experienced more embarrassing moments than I care to tell of. Being lifeless, dull, lazy and despondent, I could not keep my job. My friends didn't want my company and I was tired of being asked 'What in the world is the matter with you?'"

"After spending much money for treatment, I finally found a doctor who advised me to eat ALL-BRAN three times a day. I did this for three months and I didn't need to be told that I looked better. . . . I felt better and acted better. . . . I am still using ALL-BRAN every morning and have no trouble now whatsoever." (Name and address upon request.)

Guard against constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to prevent it—to relieve it. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Far better than habit-forming drugs and pills.

Spooks Haunt Band's Hallowe'en Party

Ghosts and spooks took control of the Brainerd Ladies Band Hallowe'en party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffbauer, 722 South Broadway.

They met the guests at the door, escorted them to the ghost chamber where tests of bravery were given. Sprites danced throughout the rooms and it was all very mysterious.

Mrs. Winnifred Cronk Ziebell won first prize in the Hallowe'en stunt contest with Dorothy June Opsahl second. Dorothy Schrader wasn't afraid of any old spooks and was awarded a prize for bravery while petite Miss Gladys Rardin was most scared out of her wits and got a prize for being the most frightened.

A buffet luncheon was served to the 28 girls present. Those entertaining were the Misses Harriet Van Dorn, Bernice Murphy and Marie Hoffbauer.

POLICE CHECKUP ON MISCHIEF MAKERS

Mail Box on 6th and Front Filled With Rock, Another Torn Down

LIGHT GLOBES BROKEN

Barber Pole Thrown Down Stairs to Shop; No Arrests Made

Hallowe'en passed in Brainerd without an arrest although police were searching today for several offenders who went beyond the tricks considered legitimate.

Outstanding offences complained of this morning and blamed to pranksters were:

The filling of the mail box on the corner of Sixth and Front streets with stones.

The tearing down of a mail box on the corner of Seventh and Front streets.

The removal of a "policeman dummy" traffic sign on the corner of Seventh and Front streets.

The removal of the barber pole at the McPike barber shop in the First National bank building and the throwing of the same down the stairs to the barber shop.

The breaking of nine globes on electric light posts in and near Gregory Park.

The breaking of a window in the old court house building.

The lowering of an arc light on "Cemetery Hill" which became a hazard until corrected.

Soaping of windows did not prove so popular a pastime last evening as it did on other Hallowe'ens.

When students at the classes of the Brainerd high school came to the old court house this morning they found a cord of wood piled up against the entrance.

A model of an Eagle weighing 250 lbs. at the White Eagle oil station, Second and Laurel, was removed to the back yard of Richard Bush, 909 Fir street.

A few of the outhouses still standing in West Brainerd were overturned and a rather humorous story is told this morning of how a resident hid in one to catch the miscreants and the pranksters locked him in and overturned it.

Three automobiles parked on north side streets were pushed for several blocks while owners searched for their cars.

The Water and Light department today employed a detective to determine who broke the globes in and near Gregory Park.

"The department intends to make an example of these offenders," W. D. McKay, secretary of the board said.

Funeral Rites Held

Funeral rites were conducted yesterday at Eaden Valley, Minn., for Michael Roach, aged 76 years, of Onamia, who died from a heart attack Tuesday at the home of his daughter, 705 Sixth avenue N. E., Brainerd.

Bucharest, Roumania, Nov. 1.—(UP)—A sharp earthquake damaged many buildings in the Bucharest district. One man was killed.

The quake was most severe in Roumania but was felt in a wide area of Bulgaria.

Seismographs were damaged by the shock which was believed to have been the most severe recorded here.

McFERRAN'S BONDS FIXED AT $2,500

Arraignment in District Court Will Depend on His Physical Condition

Bonds of $2,500 were filed today at the office of the clerk of the district court for the appearance of Dwight "Mickey" McFerran in district court where he will be tried on a second degree manslaughter charge resulting from the automobile accident on Ash Avenue the night of October 16 when Lucille Preston, a high school girl was killed.

The date of the trial of McFerran can only be determined by his condition of health. McFerran has been a patient in the St. Joseph's hospital since the accident suffering from internal injuries. He was arraigned before Judge J. H. Warner at the hospital yesterday, waived examination and was held to the district court. Bonds of $2,500 were set by Judge W. S. McClenahan. County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan is conducting the case for the state. C. A. Ryan of the law firm of Ryan, Ryan, and Ryan, Brainerd, will defend McFerran.

It was reported that a wreath of flowers had been sent from the club in respect to Mrs. Matt Hautala, mother of Arthur Hautala, member of the club and captain of the football team of the Brainerd high.

Five new members were added to the club last evening: Nathan Schuetz, Ray Paine, Arthur Hedlund, Lloyd Johnson, Leo Turcotte. This increase adds the membership to 27, leaving an opening for only three new members.

The club voted to study church history from the time of Christ to the present era under direction of Richard Penrose, B. H. S. instructor and club leader.

MARKER RECOVERED, PRANKSTERS BLAMED

Bronze Tablet Thrown on Porch of Northside Home; Damaged Slightly

BELIEVED WORK OF BOYS

Marker to be Replaced on Granite Boulder in Park by D. A. R. Immediately

Hallowe'en pranksters were blamed for the theft of the bronze marker from the monument in Gregory Park on its recovery last evening.

The tablet was thrown on the porch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weber, 410 Bluff avenue N. The offenders used a six feet stick with two prongs to throw the marker without being detected. Mrs. Weber a member of the Park Board was inclined to believe it to be the work of boys.

The D. A. R. organization who dedicated the monument to the city of Brainerd will order the immediate replacement of the marker on the granite boulder.

"During 12 hours every day, I have to be what other people want me to be. The rest of the time I can be myself. If I married, I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."
